GARDENING IS A PROFITABLE WAY TO SPEND LEISURE TIME—IT BENEFITS
PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY & FINANCIALLY

I know a man—you may know him too—who always seems busy yet ever has leisure to turn over the good earth, to admire a butterfly, to be enraptured by a wonderful sunset. With him flowers and plants deserve as much consideration as people.

This man is happy because his leisure is devoted to things worthwhile and each year he can look back on real accomplishments with the few square yards which represent his garden. From vernal spring to autumn frost it ever blooms with beauty; bringing to all beholders joy and happiness—and to its creator, contentment.

Once, only a comparatively few people cultivated a garden because there was less leisure then and because there were fewer labor saving devices. Today, when there are more spare hours for nearly everybody, and the work has been made lighter, Gardening is more popular—deservedly—than ever. "The Gardener's name begins with the same letter as God's," says a noted Writer; gardening was the first actual work of our first parents.

If you love flowers and growing things, MAKE YOUR GARDEN AS FINE AS PAINS AND LOVE WILL DO IT. Which of course means you must have good seed, not merely the staple and standard things to be found everywhere, but seeds that will produce unusual, "different" and surprising results. The amateur gardener ought to show his plantings—and that he does by buying his seeds from GOOD LUCK GARDENS.

Again we present a catalogue artfully combined with the usual and the unusual. May we call your attention to these new valuable additions to our catalogues:

FLAME OF FIRE—(Show Bush of the Garden), page 18.
MARIGOLD, Sunshine Giants, page 23.
ENGLISH DAISY—Bellis Beata—Giant Flowering, page 9.
FRAGRANT PANSY—Mixed Colors, Fascinating Perfume, page 26.
PETUNIA—Flaming Velvet, page 31.
SWEET PEA—Shirley Temple, page 34.
FREW'S EARLY ROUND CABBAGE, page 42.
KING CROST BANTAM SWEET CORN, page 46.
SUGAR STICK PEA—page 52.
FIRECRACKER RADISH—page 54.
GOOD LUCK LONG STANDING SPINACH, page 56.
GOOD LUCK GIANT ONION—(One makes a meal), page 51.
COSMOS—Mammoth Sensation, page 15.
WILT RESISTANT PEA—page 53.

Look through the catalogue. Plan now to use your leisure keeping the mental picture of how you want your garden to look in May, in June, and the other productive months. Order liberally, plant interestedly, cultivate assiduously—and your leisure will bloom into the greatest crop of satisfaction you have ever known.

Good Luck Seeds Are Guaranteed to Grow

If any packet does not give you the results you expect, we will refund the full purchase price or give you other seeds in replacement. Good Luck Seeds are good seeds, tested, full of life, eager to grow, and if planted and cared for according to directions will reward you with splendid results. Seeds, like people, require individual attention. With every order we will send you our FREE "Guide for Successfully Growing Good Luck Seeds".

Cultivatingly yours,

Good Luck Gardens
